Dear Mr. Frank:

Thank you for your recent rebranding proposal showcasing how Firestorm Design can positively impact the corporate identity of Tommy Who's Music. We admire the level of excellence in your work, which shows us why Firestorm Design is such a successful company in the graphic design industry.

Tommy Who, founder of Tommy Who's Music, was excited to see new proposals that brought his ideas to life. After reviewing a number of options we have decided to move forward with the one that highlights the music therapy aspect of our business, which sets our company apart from others in the industry. Therefore, at this time we will not be able to accept the proposal from Firestorm Design. This is not a reflection of the quality of your work.

Again, thank you for your rebranding proposal. Tommy Who's Music will keep your exceptional work on file if in need of your talent in the future.

Sincerely,

Katie Nimtz
