Angels of Actions hosts a Read Along for the Downtown Book Walk

Big Rapids, MI - Angels of Action will be hosting a Read Along for the Downtown Book Walk on Thursday, March 15.

In a collaboration to raise awareness for reading, Angels of Action and SLD Read are teaming up to bring a Downtown Book Walk to the families of Big Rapids throughout the month of March.

“In March, families can walk through the downtown area stopping at the participating community organizations to follow the story page by page. The book has been printed and the pages will be hung in the display windows. On Thursday, March 15, we will have ‘Readers’ at each window to share the story with participating families,” said Joni Thompson, Director and CEO of Angels of Action.

Live page readers will be at the store windows beginning at 5:00 pm. A special celebrity reader will be at the After Party to share the last two pages, ending the suspense, at 6:30 pm located in the Angels of Action office. Children in attendance will receive a free age appropriate book, snacks, and other fun giveaways.

“The Book Walk will allow for an opportunity to engage the community with local organizations and to promote positive family time,” said Thompson.

Angels of Action is a nonprofit in Big Rapids Michigan that combats child hunger. By helping sustain these children, Angels of Action seeks not only to help meet their nutritional needs but also promote their physical, cognitive and social development, and to enhance their overall sense of well-being. They service over 670 children in over 9 Mecosta County Public Schools. To find out more about Angels of Action visit their website at www.AngelsOfAction.org.
